

Tempo Records Discography

There were several other more famous labels called Tempo, including one that specialized in jazz & R&B that was located in Hollywood and operated in the 1940s and 1950s. There was also a noted jazz label that operated in the 1950s in the UK. Another Tempo Records out of Kansas City specialized in Christian music in the 1980s.

This particular Tempo Records label was part of Alshire Records, located at 2818 West Pico Boulevard, Los Angeles. It appears to have been a subsidiary for the release of foreign recordings. The label was pretty much “under the radar,” and never made it to Billboard for announcing its releases. We think these were all released sometime in the 1960s, but we may be wrong.
