

Contemporary Label Discography

Lester Koenig started the Good Time Jazz label in Los Angeles in 1951, it was located at 707 North Irving Boulevard. In 1953 they moved to 8481 Melrose Place. Vice President of the company was Bob Kirstein. Producers were Nesuhi Ertegün (later of Atlantic fame) and Bob Kirstein. The output of the label was jazz and folk music.

Contemporary Records was formed as a subsidiary in 1952 or 1953. Contemporary was also located at 8481 Melrose Place. The output of Contemporary was jazz and classical music. The Society For Forgotten Music Label (SFM) subsidiary was formed in 1958. The SFM label released classical music. The California Label subsidiary was formed in 1958 and only released one known album. Contemporary formed a label called Stereo Records in 1958, and released stereo versions of albums released in monaural on California, Contemporary, Good Time Jazz and the Society for Forgotten Music. This separate label for stereo was used into 1959 and then abandoned and stereo releases were issued on the same label as the monaural releases.

All of the Contemporary labels were purchased by Fantasy Records.

This Discography includes the Contemporary Label, Good Time Jazz, California, Stereo and Society for Forgotten Music (SFM) Labels

This Contemporary Label discography was compiled using Schwann catalogs from 1950 to 1982, Phonolog from 1963, The Complete Library of American Phonograph Recordings (1958-1968) by Jerry Osborne, The Jazz Discography Project Website (<http://www.jazzdisco.org>), The American Record Label Directory and Dating Guide, 1940-1959 by Galen Gart and my record collection.

Tracks are listed in order they appear on the albums, when known and the double slash (//) is indication of the separation between sides. Titles listed without a double slash (//) are listed as printed in the Phono-Log or Schwann catalog New Entries listing, and the separation between side one and side two is unknown.
