

Discography of the Verve, Clef, Down Home and Norgran Labels

Clef Records was formed in 1948 in California by Norman Granz, originally it was associated with Aladdin records but became independent in the early fifties. Clef recorded jazz and popular music. Initially the Clef releases were issued on Mercury. Norgran was a subsidiary formed in 1954 and recorded jazz exclusively. Verve Records was formed in 1956 by Norman Granz in Beverly Hills, California. Verve recorded jazz, popular, folk, comedy, spoken word and gospel and quickly became the dominant label when the Clef and Norgran labels were discontinued in 1957. The Down Home Record Co. was founded in Albany California in 1950 and recorded traditional Dixieland jazz. Norman Granz purchased the label in 1953. Granz issued a few albums on the Down Home label in 1956 but shortly thereafter they were discontinued and reissued on the Verve label.

In the 1950's, Norman Granz was President of the Verve label. The national sales manager was Bernie Silverman. A & R for the label was handled by Buddy Bregman, Russ Garcia, Norman Granz and Barney Kessel.

The Verve label grew during the 1950's and signed a very impressive roster of jazz figures including Charlie Parker, Dizzy Gillespie, Stan Getz, Coleman Hawkins, Illinois Jacquet, Roy Eldridge Count Basie, Louis Armstrong and others. Jazz vocalists on the label included Ella Fitzgerald, Anita O'Day and Mel Torme. It was certainly the most impressive jazz roster of any independent label. They also signed several significant comedians including Mort Sahl, Shelley Berman and Jonathan Winters. Later, in the rock field several very influential groups were signed to the Verve including the Velvet Underground and Frank Zappa and the Mothers of Invention. Probably the biggest sellers in the rock field were the Righteous Brothers, who came to Verve after several gigantic hits on Phil Spector's Philles label. Their biggest hit on Verve was "Soul and Inspiration" with its "wall of sound" sounds like it could have been produced by Phil Spector

In 1961 Norman Granz sold the label to MGM Records for 3 million dollars. Creed Taylor was made head of production and brought in more commercial jazz and folk artists. The Verve-Folkways label was formed in 1966. This label was an association between Verve and Moe Asch's Folkways Records. Some Folkways material by Leadbelly, Pete Seeger, John Lee Hooker and Lightnin' Hopkins was reissued on the Verve Folkways label. This association came to an end sometime in 1967 and the name of the label was changed to Verve-Forecast.

The Verve masters were acquired by Polygram in the 1970's and are now the property of Universal Music Group.

This Discography covers the Clef, Norgran, Down Home, Verve Folkways and Verve Forecast Labels

The Verve and associated labels discography was compiled using our record collections, The American Record Label Directory and Dating Guide, 1940-1959 by Galen Gart, Schwann Catalogs from 1953 to 1980, a Phono-Log from 1963, The Michel Ruppli "The Clef/Verve Labels: A Discography Volume 1, The Norman Granz Era", The Verve Discography Project of JAZZDISCO.org and various other sources.

Tracks are listed in order they appear on the albums, when known. The double slash (//) is indication of the separation between sides. Titles listed without a double slash (//) are listed as printed in Phono-Log, New Entry section of the Schwann Catalogs or the order listed in JAZZDISCO.org. For those albums where the track-by-track stereo content is indicated, (S) means true stereo, (E) means electronic (fake) stereo, and (M) means mono.
